

"Sydney CBD India Australia Discussion Group"

(A joint activity for members of CPA Australia and the Australian Chapter of the Institute of Chartered Accounts of India)

Invitation

The Sydney CBD discussion group has been formed at the onset of the Mutual Recognition Agreement (MRA) between ICAI and CPA Australia. It is a forum for members to keep in touch with contemporary professional development initiatives. The group aims to provide a platform to its members to be involved in ongoing learning, development and training activities with the ultimate objective of enhancing contribution of our members in their respective professional roles and looking at avenues to increase networking opportunities and to create business and career opportunities. The discussion group offers its attendees access to CPD credit hours under the mandatory requirements of both CPA Australia and The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
